Pricing and marketing policies are jointly determined between manufacturer and the distributor. The distributors purchase mobile phones directly from the manufacturers and sell through their dealers or general retail stores.

The entrepreneurs in this group are directly appointed as dealer by the foreign mobile phone manufacturer but focusing on selling through their own retail shops and selling points. At their own shops to serve all target group of customers while sell some of their products to other distributors also. The players of this group understand customers' needs and behaviors as they have to contact directly with both manufacturers and customers which enable them to be more adaptable to the fast change of the industry.

These retail stores employ small amount of investment and there is no management system and after sales services. The owner of the shop deals with customer himself, thus, the price is negotiable. The competition among the players in this group is only focusing on the price. Therefore, the credibility of this group is less than others.

It's makes overall trust and confidence on products of TWZ Smartphone. Consequently, the Company has the potential to compete with other operators as well.

2. Risk Factors

2.1 Risk associated with the termination of franchise contract with Advance Info Service Plc.

The Company was granted franchise for sales of goods and services under the name of "Telewiz" from Advance Info Service Public Limited Company ("AIS") which could be terminated if any events specified in terms and conditions of the contract occur or either party may terminate this contract by giving written notice 60 days prior the termination date to the other party. At present, there are 21 Telewiz shops, AIS Shop and AIS Buddy under TWZ management. Therefore, the revenues of the Company might decrease if the contract is terminated.

However, due to the prime locations of the Company, it is able to operate these shops in form of TWZ shop immediately if the termination of contract occurs.

The Company consistently supports AIS's business. The Company only sells SIM card and top up mobile of AIS network. Moreover, Telewiz branches also consistently get the rewards from AIS. The Company has most Telewiz shops in Bangkok. Therefore, the management believes that there is a minimal chance that the contract will be terminated and the Company's business will be consistently supported by AIS.

2.2 Risk from depending on major distributors

Each distributor obtains the exclusive right to sell specific products/ models, therefore, to have variety of products, the Company has to purchase from various distributors. However, the decision to purchase from any distributor depends on the popularity of the products/ models of each period, discount and other sales promotions provided by each distributor.

The Company realizes the risk from depending on major distributors; therefore, the Company still maintains its relationship with other suppliers by diversifying its purchase to other distributors. Besides, the Company is the distributor of its own brand names "TWZ". As a result, the Company has up-to-date products which can serve customers' needs as well as decrease the dependence from major distributors.

2.3 Risk from Foreign Exchange Rate

The Company imported some mobile phones and accessories by paying in foreign currencies, thus, the Company might have the currency exchange risk. Therefore, the Company has followed exchange rate movement closely. The Company also has a policy to purchase forward contract to cover the exposure of foreign purchasing based on the situation as well as the appropriateness in order to mitigate the risk from foreign exchange rate that may occur.

2.4 Risk from product obsolescence

Mobile phone is the fast-paced technological change product, thus, the manufacturer has to consistently develop new models to serve customers' need. Therefore, the Company might encounter problems with the inventory management for the out of dated models which the Company could not sell and eventually has to decrease the price to compete with new models.

As the Company's management is in the mobile phone distribution industry more than 20 years, they understand thoroughly of the mobile phone industry. They realize the importance of carefully product selection of each brand/model to sell. Moreover, the Company consistently surveys opinions and needs of both distributors and dealer s. Meanwhile, the Company obtains information about the new mobile phone model, new technology of mobile phone from well-known mobile phone manufacturers which enable the Company to be able to select products that are needed. Besides, the Company has the efficient inventory management by establishing inventory online system which linked to all the Company's branches in order to be able to check each branch's stock. The Company also has distribution channels through its dealers; therefore, the Company can sell the products very fast before they are out-of-dated. Moreover, if its mobile phone manufacturers as well as major distributors who appoint the Company to be their dealers decrease their selling prices in order to be competitive in the market, the Company will be compensated the price change of each model in accordance with the condition that agreed with those manufactures and/or distributors.

2.5 Risk from competition

The fast growing of mobile phone and accessory distribution business, especially the growth of smart phones, therefore, mobile phone can be purchased from any sources, not only from operators. Thus, there are new players, who mostly are small retailers, participating in mobile phone business which will increase the competition especially the price competition in the industry.

The Company is the affiliated dealer of AIS who is the largest mobile phone operator, has various products to serve customers and has covered distribution channels as all the Company's retail shops located at the prime area over Bangkok and has dealers over the country. Besides, the Company has quality one-stop service centers, which are able to support all the Company's products and enable the Company to make consistently services revenues. As the Company's management understands thoroughly about the mobile phone industry as well as the customers' needs, they are able to solve all the problems very quickly. Due to the above reasons, the Company believes that it is ready and capable to compete with other players in the industry.

2.6 Risk associated with the rental contracts

The Company distributes its products to its retail customers via its 23 retail shops located in department stores and super centers; therefore, the Company has to rent the shop area both short term and long term. The Company may have risk of expiration of rental contracts or change in conditions that cause more expenses. Therefore, there is risk for contract extension in the future. However, as the Company is the good business partner with the area owner as well, the probability of this risk is considered low.

3. Competitive Strategy

The company also has a sales department that is directly responsible for overseeing these dealers. They will contact and visit dealers regularly to acknowledge various problems to develop and improve for the satisfied services in terms of speed in delivering new products to keep up with demand, product quality and product prices. In addition, the Company has continually organized promotional activities among its dealers to increase the incentive to buy products from the company.

The company attaches great importance to inventory management. Since the technology of mobile phone changes all the time. Consequently, consumers tend to change their popularity quickly as well. Therefore, companies may experience problems arising from obsolete products. The company, then, has developed an inventory management system to be more efficient by using the Inventory Online system that links the inventory of all branches, making it possible to control the amount of inventory efficiently. In addition, the company has an inventory count of every piece in every branch at the end of the day. For the warehouse, the company will divide the counting staff according to the product type by randomly count according to the unit count (box) in order to compare the inventory balance with the inventory report from the company's inventory system.
